In the Coming Week

SOAP BOX RACERS SPEED THROUGH SHERMAN HEIGHTS

Supervisor Greg Cox will join the Inner City Business Association for their annual speed festival as he kicks off the Sherman Heights Soap Box Derby. A popular event that provides positive options for neighborhood kids, Supervisor Cox will also make a special presentation of a check for $5,000 in support of the event.

Saturday, June 26 at 9:00 am, race starts at the Intersection of 25th and Market Streets, Sherman Heights, San Diego.

NEW MURAL UNVEILED IN CESAR CHAVEZ PARK

Supervisor Greg Cox joins the Logan Heights Historical Society and Barrio Station for the unveiling of the Logan Heights Historic Mural at Cesar Chavez Park. Created by a local artist with the financial support of the County and the Port of San Diego, the photo mural adds to the neighborhood pride and community spirit of the vibrant neighborhood by capturing scenes from the golden age of Logan Heights.

Saturday, June 26 at 1:00 pm at Cesar Chavez Park, 1400 Cesar E. Chavez Parkway, San Diego.

GASLAMP'S GREATEST SUPPORTER

Supervisor Greg Cox will laud the accomplishments of Teresa McTighe, Executive Director of the Gaslamp Quarter Association for her service to San Diego's liveliest neighborhood at a special event in her honor.

Wednesday, June 30 at 5:00 pm at Mr. Tiki's Mai Tai Lounge, corner of 5th Avenue and G Street, Downtown San Diego.
